Lions Club picnic is Sunday

Maxwell Street Days to begin

Antioch and its surrounding communities are getting ready for one of those big summer weekends so typical of these parts.

The climax is Sunday, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. when the Lions Club holds its annual Farmer's Picnic, Chicken Bar-B-Que and Auction at Williams Park.

Chicken dinners will be sold starting at 11, and there will be games, races and prizes for children from 1:30 to 5 p.m.

The auction, directed by Herman Behm, annually attracts a huge crowd. The Lions Club donates the proceeds to the Antioch Rescue Squad.

SHOPPERS WILL flock to Antioch's downtown on Thursday, Friday and Saturday to see the bargains offered during Maxwell Street Days, sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The sidewalk sales and other fun are among the village's highlights every year.

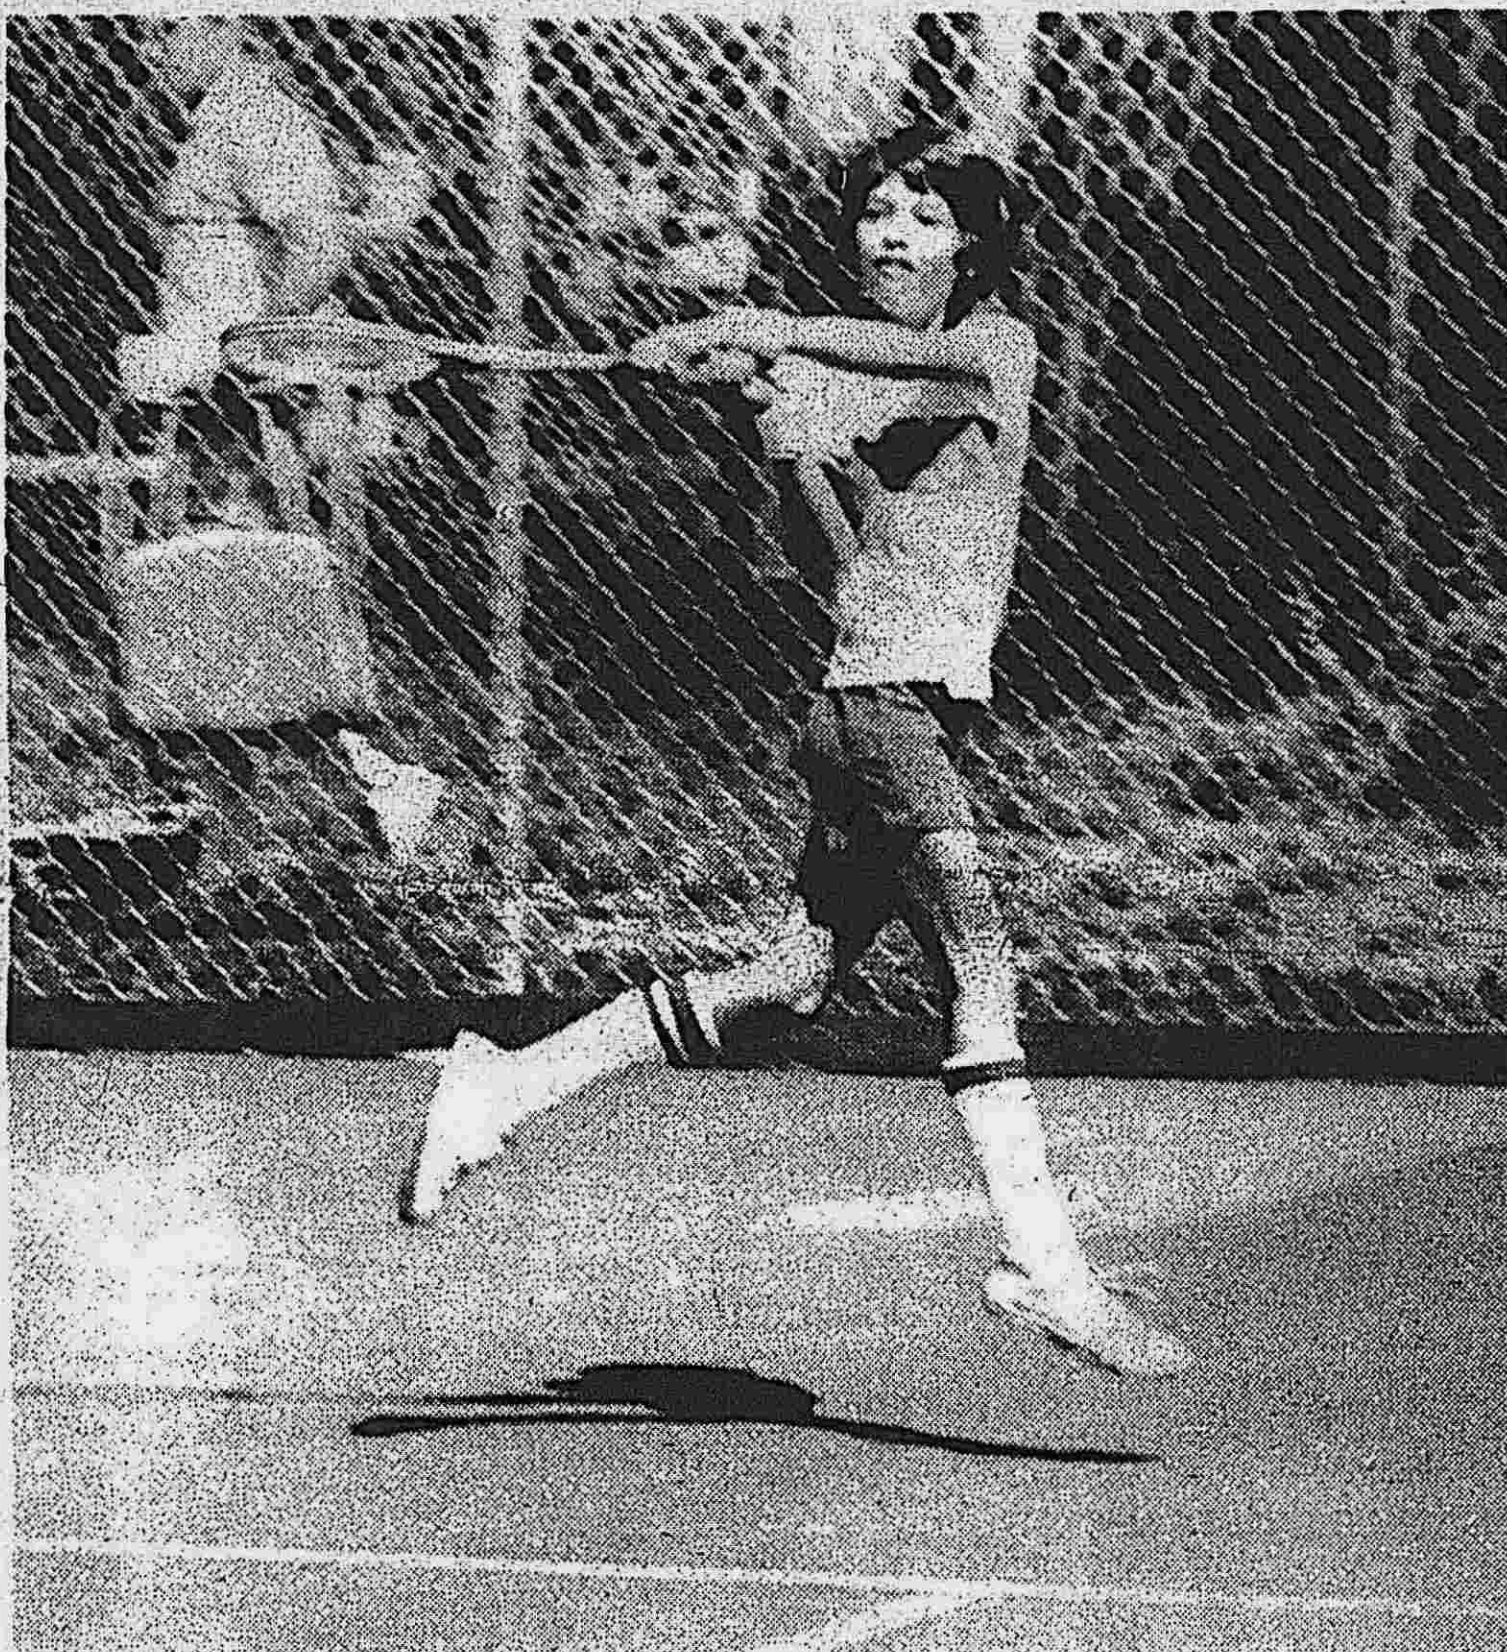

Participating merchants are listed in an advertisement on page 9. Be sure to see the special ads placed by various businessmen on other pages of today's Antioch News.

THE YOUNGEST boys' champion in the State Bank tennis tournament was Don Korjenek, who won the first place trophy in the division for youngsters between the ages of 8 and 10.

Sign law is an issue again

One of Antioch's favorite pastimes, trying to interpret the village sign ordinance, has begun again.

The topic arose at Monday night's village board meeting in regard to the six-month temporary signs that have been permitted at the new Hickory Commons shopping center, on Rt. 173 east of Hy. 83.

Phil Adesko, owner of Candlelight Galleries Inc., requested permission, and received it, to retain his temporary sign until, in the words of Mayor Mike Haley, "we come to a decision on how we are going to interpret this ordinance."

VILLAGE CLERK MARILYN STERBENZ read a letter from attorney Andrew C. Lynch in which the following points were made:

- The long-discussed sign ordinance does not specifically cover all the questions that arise.
- In a court situation, if a conflict arises, the ordinance would be construed so as to give the benefit to the party applying for relief, as opposed to

Chicago man drowns near Loon Lake shore

A 36-year-old Chicago man drown in Loon Lake Monday afternoon while fishing.

The Lake County sheriff's department said Kenneth R. Wheeler was in a boat with three companions when he had trouble with his motor.

Sheriff's police said Wheeler pulled onto a sand bar, about 30 feet from shore on the south side of the lake, and tried to fix the motor. Failing, he decided to walk to shore but came to a dropoff and submerged in 7 or 8 feet of water.

One of his companions tried to rescue him but failed and returned to the sand bar.

Rich Hengles of Rosemont heard calls for help, police said, and swam to the spot. He recovered the body and the Antioch Rescue Squad rushed Wheeler to a local clinic, but he was dead on arrival at 3:50 p.m.

Big weekend: Maxwell Street Days, then Lions Club picnic

The Jaycees will be operating a "dunk tank" at the Limerick Lounge. An added attraction this year is a delicious corn roast ... and members of the Jaycees hint they might have some other surprises, too, which will help make Maxwell Street Days fun and exciting.

AT THE LIONS CLUB picnic, the excitement will begin at 9:30 a.m. when the Antioch swim team hosts five other teams in its annual invitational meet at the Aqua Center.

Games starting at 1:30 p.m. will attract children and adults, with competition in six age brackets.

The advertisement on page 11 tells more about

Sunday's activities at Williams Park.

THE AUCTION STARTS at 12:30 p.m. and will feature a larger variety of items than in past years.

The Rescue Squad is cancelling its September golf outing this year and concentrating on Sunday's auction to raise money for its volunteer work. Businessmen and others throughout the community are cooperating by donating auction items.

Downtown store is broken into

Antioch police last Friday received a report of a burglary at the Antioch Deli, 402 Lake St.

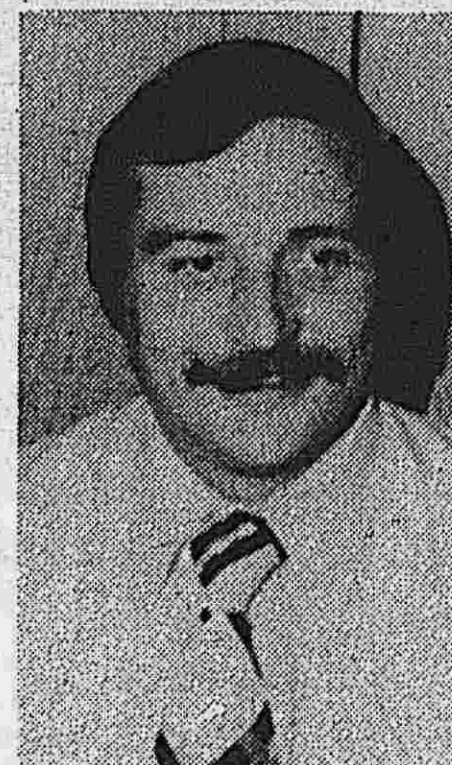

The intruder gained entry by breaking a window at the rear of the store. Inside, in the game room, four quarter-operated machines were pried open and an undetermined amount of money was taken.

Protect what you've put into your life

Most men think about life insurance when they first start a family.

But the older your family gets, the more you need life insurance—and the more life insurance you need.

The cost of living and children's financial needs grow with time. If your wife was suddenly left alone it would be tough for her to provide for your family.

So if life insurance was a good idea 20 years ago, it's an even better idea to call your Country Companies agent and review your life protection today.

Letter

Gentlemen:

We recently spent a weekend visiting Relatives in the Antioch area. We stayed at a motel in your nice town, ate at a fine restaurant (Las Vegas), shopped at various places, attended the Catholic Church, and later toured your fantastic Arts Festival.

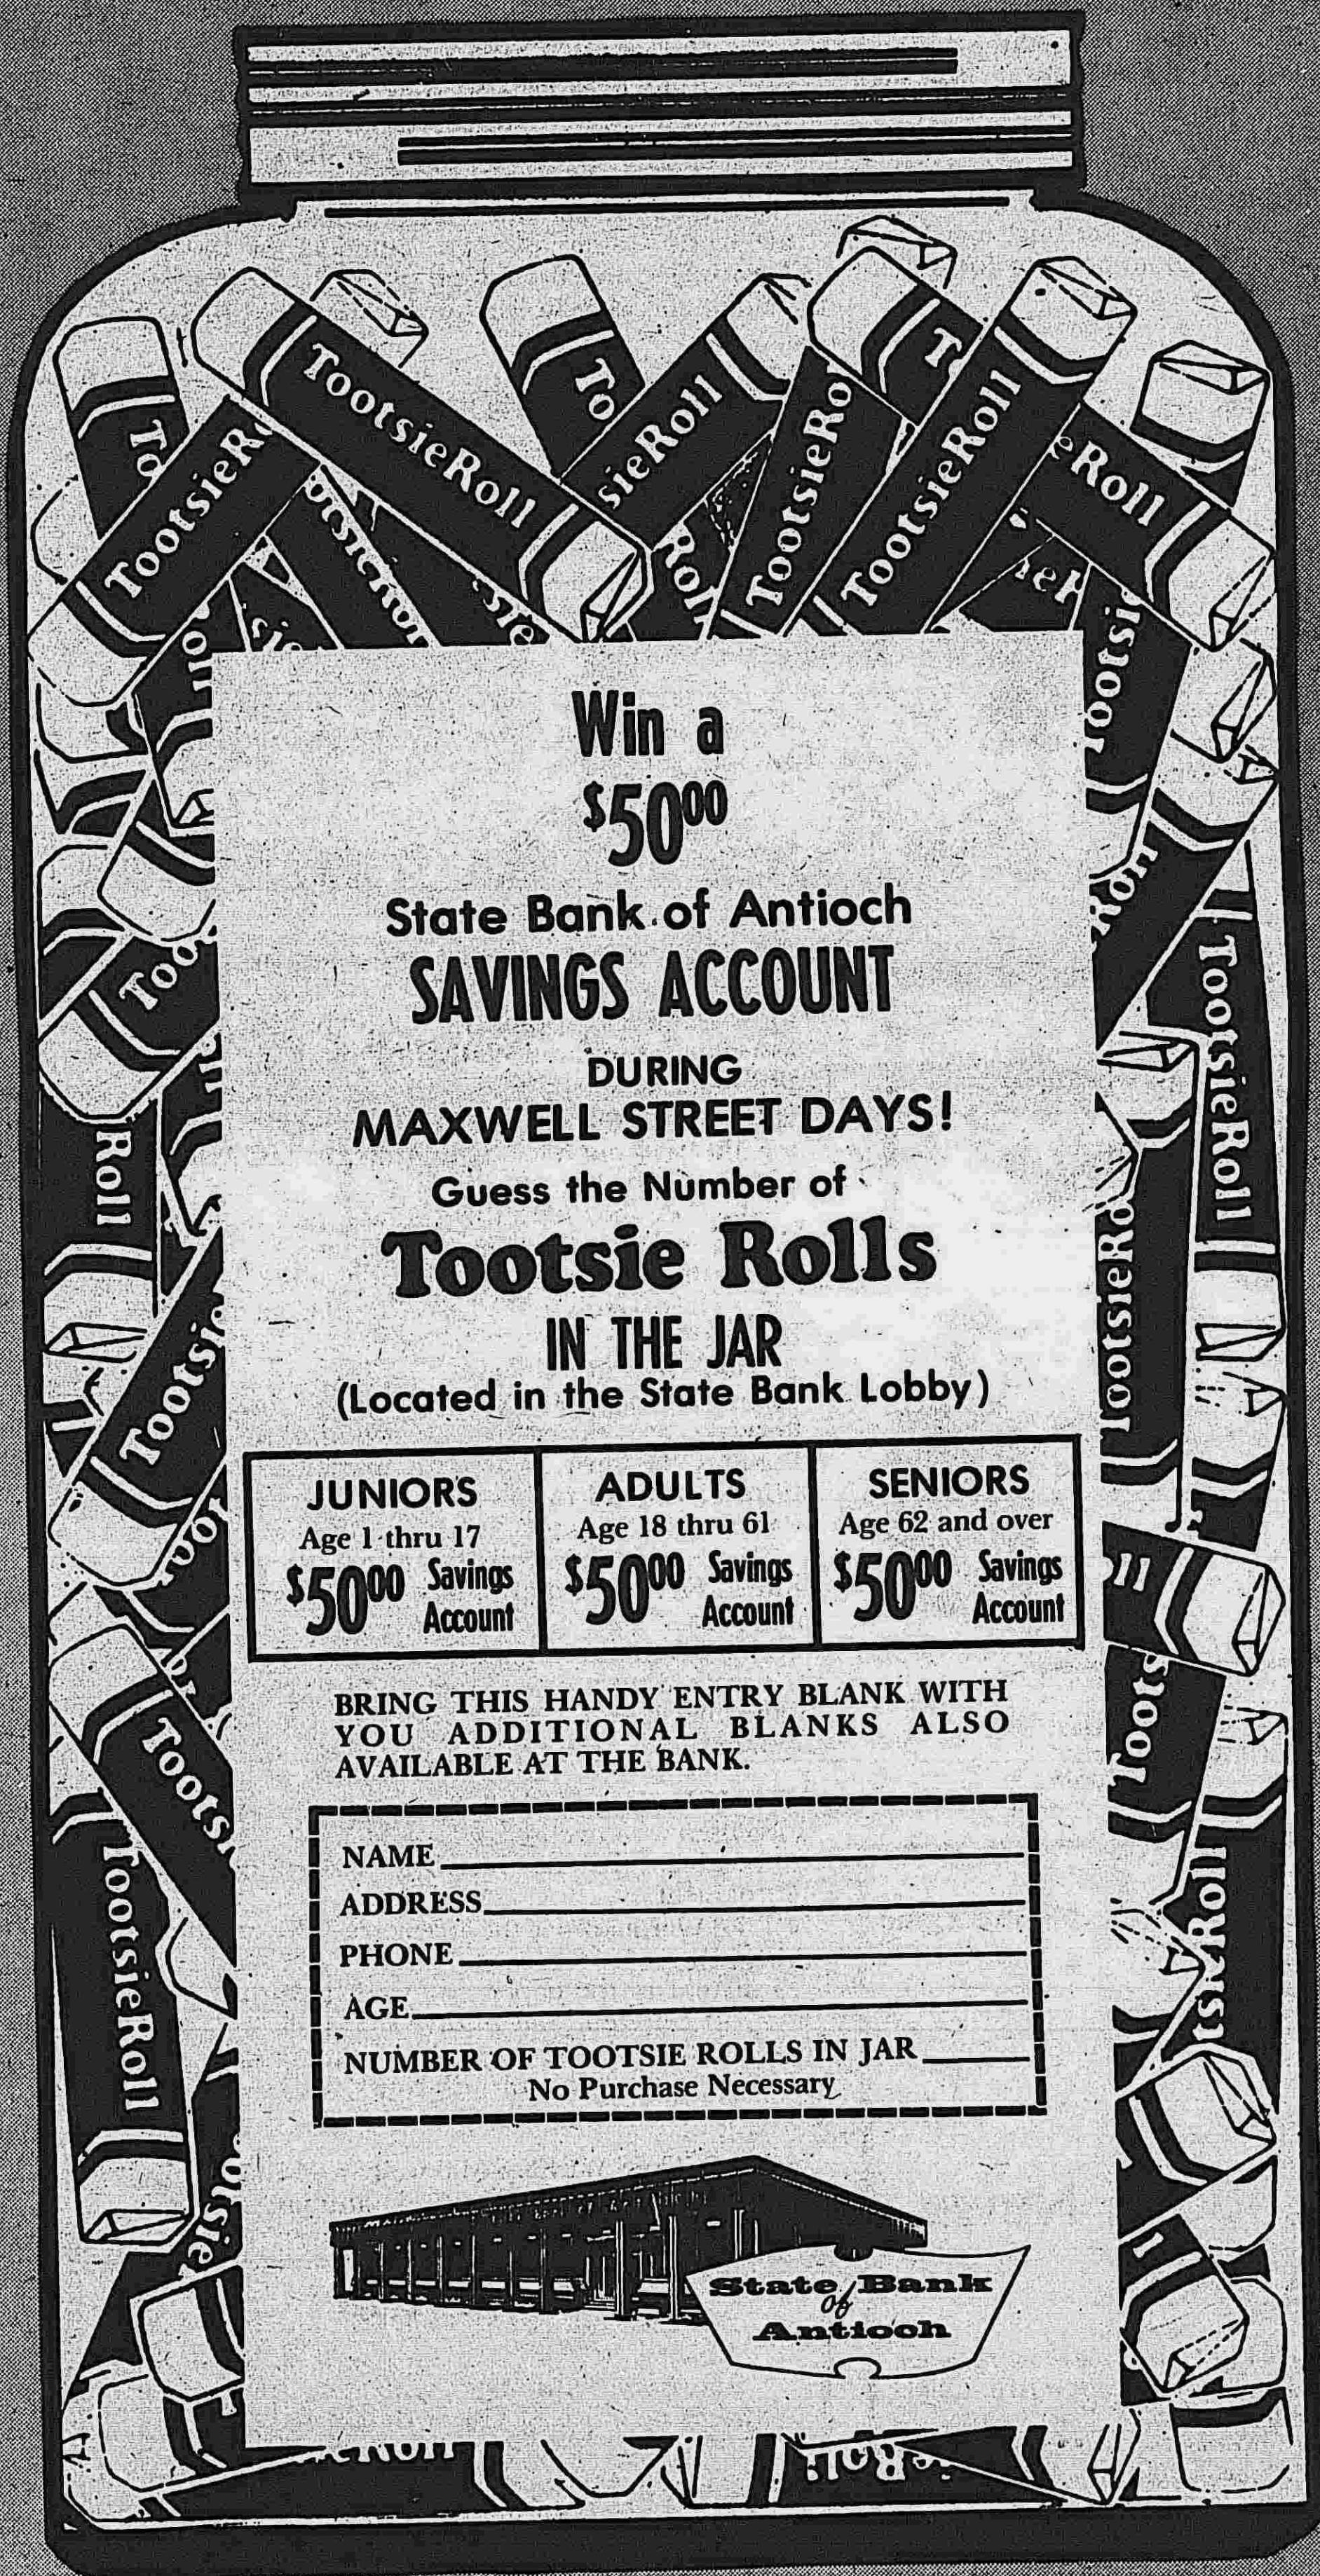

We want to inform you of the wonderful people we've had the pleasure of talking with, being served by, and being informed by, all with courtesy and hospitality.

We wished we would have had more time to spend to see more of the special arts and crafts made by so many talented people in and around Antioch.

Thank you - Antioch - for a nice memory!

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Sunday's "Firemen's Picnic" at Williams Park was a success ... there were no casualties in the softball game.

A super 49th wedding anniversary is coming up next Sunday for Bernard and Helen Gutowski Sr. of Grass Lake.

Perhaps all of their six children and most of their 22 grandchildren will be here to help them celebrate. Their sons are Bernie and Joe Gutowski of Antioch; and their daughters are Jean Benes, Barb Miller, Pat Serwa of Lake Villa and Dolores Stillson of DeKalb.

GETTING OLD ALSO means becoming absent-minded, at least in my case. Darn it, I lost my birthday book. But I do remember that our favorite 4-year-old, Karen Lipinski, will be 5 on Sunday, Aug. 7. On Friday, Aug. 5, Ellen Badame also will celebrate. (Ellen and husband Nick have a nice new place in Lake Villa which you should visit ...)

On Sunday, Aug. 7, be sure to stop at Thompson's Restaurant in downtown Antioch and say "Happy Birthday" to Maggie. She and her husband, Harry Lenny, certainly have become popular folks since taking over that fine restaurant.

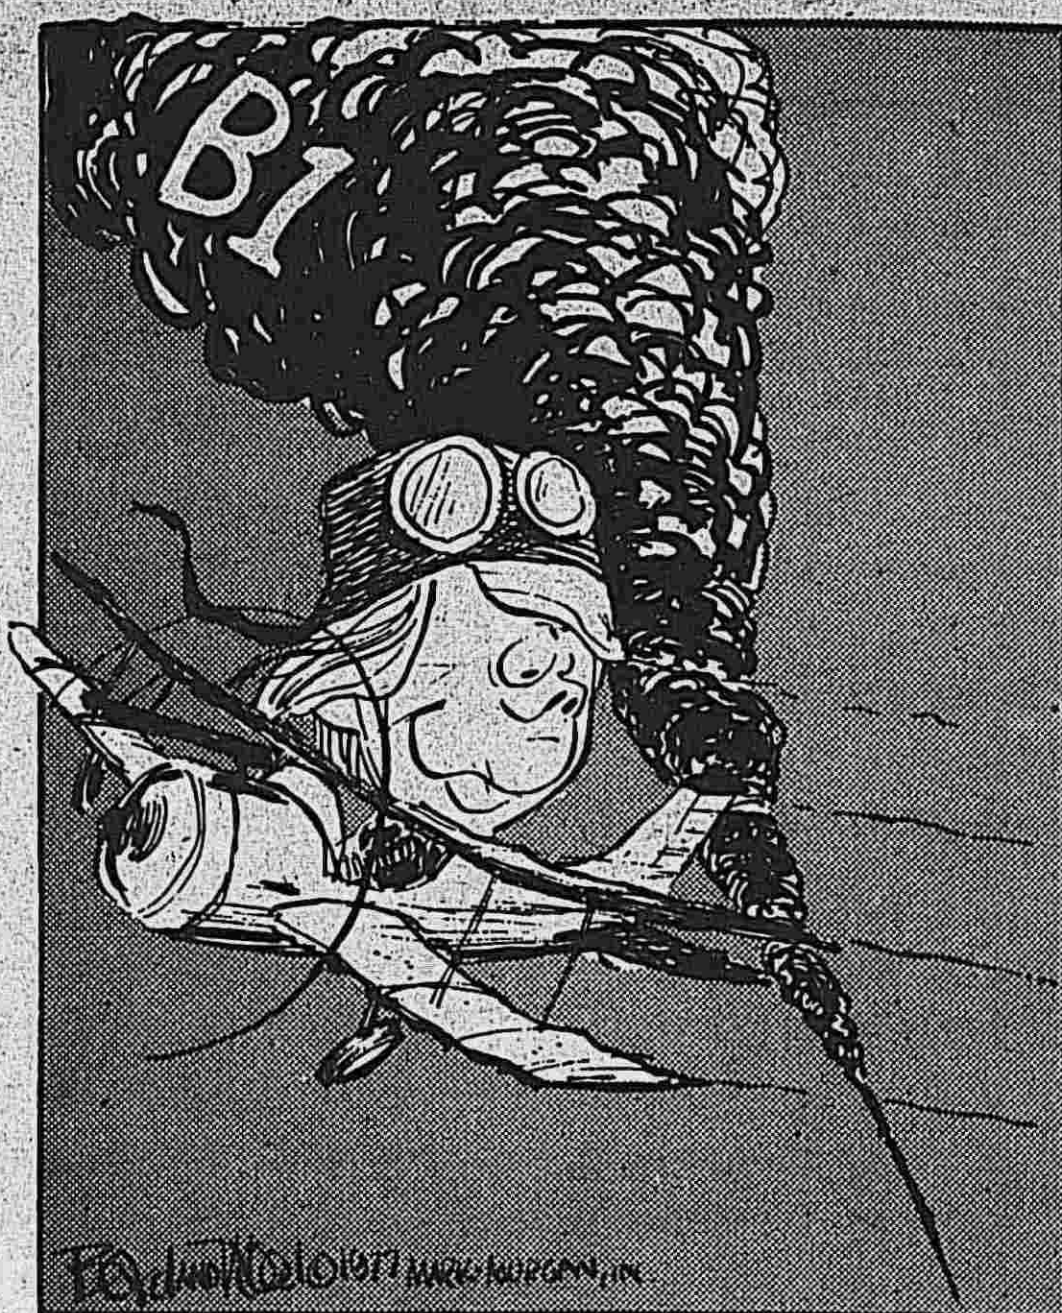

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce & Industry has realized more than $1,600 profit from the Art Fair and All-American Festival held July 10.

A big "thank you" goes to Ways & Means chairman Pres Reckers, Art Fair Chairman Dennis Johnson, their assistants and all the volunteers who made it happen.

NEW CHAMBER MEMBERS are being invited to orientation breakfasts so they can meet with the board of directors to discuss goals and objectives. Old members are encouraged to share their ideas with the board also.

New Chamber members include Sharon Teaters of the Little Gallery, George Braddock of George's Texaco, Joe and Barb Rush of the B-J Rush Photo Studio, and Marvin Sax of Mr. Marvin's Coiffures.

UNCLE SAM'S RIPOFF

The average small businessman spends about two weeks each year in nonproductive effort filling out various government reports. A recent Senate Study indicates that there are over 5,300 different kinds of federal forms and questionnaires that cost business and the public some $36 billion annually to "fill in the blanks."

In response, Congress is being asked to create another agency to prevent duplication and simplify paperwork for small retailers.

The Town Crier

MEMBERS OF ANTIOCH'S Lions Club can't get together without having one heck of a time. All of the Lions' friends know that.

Last week they held their annual golf and tennis outing at Abbey Springs in Fontana.

The Abbey Springs golf course is only a few years old, so it still isn't in the best of condition. Yet it has spectacular holes and spectacular views, overlooking Lake Geneva.

The front nine is particularly tough, because the fairways are extremely narrow and the woods flanking the fairways are like jungles.

Jim Fields had fun kidding the friendly pro, Biff Pancratz, at the post-tournament dinner.

"I've got a dozen golf balls out in those woods," smiled Fields, "and at $1.30 apiece it hasn't been a cheap day."

John Teresi gave Pancratz this zinger:

"I walked up to a green and it was dead. Then, I remembered, I hit that green last year, too. No wonder it was dead. I hit it twice."

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS of the day. Jack Jorgensen won two prizes: longest drive and closest-to-the-hole. That doesn't happen often in a golf tournament.

Dr. Ed Warner drove the green on a 333-yard hole ... downhill.

"Put that in the paper," smiled Warner. "No one will believe it, but I drove 333 yards."

His partner, Dr. Al Bucar, laughed and said:

"If you put it in the Antioch News, it's for sure that no one will believe it."

AFTER THIS WEEK'S Maxwell Street Days "sell-a-bration" Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the next Chamber promotion will be Moonlight Madness on Thursday, Aug. 25.

Did you know that the Chamber last week donated $100 to the Chain-o-Lakes fishing derby and $150 to the Antioch Rescue Squad?

WE'VE HEARD A LOT of war stories, but this is the best one we heard this week.

A Marine who had not received any mail for weeks was finally handed a letter while lying in a foxhole with bullets whizzing over his head.

It was a bill for five dollars, and the note read, "If this bill paid in five days, you'll find yourself in serious difficulty."

Land purchased, maybe for a future high school

The Antioch High School board of education last week decided to buy 51 acres of land at the intersection of Grass Lake and Deep Lake roads.

It eventually could be the site of another high school for the district.

Attorney Ted C. Larson was instructed to work out the legal documents.

The site located in the southeast corner of the intersection was purchased to provide for projected needs. Within two miles of this site, there are currently plans for 500 homes to be built. In addition, the 1,100 acres adjacent are being explored for development and annexation to the village of Lake Villa.

"Currently, there is no plan to construct a second high school on the site. It is being purchased because of availability and location to meet projected growth," school officials said.

A total price of $256,645 has been set by the owner of the property, Paul Brandel.

IN OTHER ACTION, the board approved the negotiations committee recommendation as reported by chairman Frank C. Johnson. This reflects an average of 8.2 percent salary increase to the teaching staff. The beginning salary was raised from $9,900 to $10,300.

The district's budget for 1977-78 will be available for inspection in the general office of the high school on Monday, Aug. 8.

Upon request, the board released counselors Michael J. O'Brien and Lynn Zalon from contracts for 1977-78 and employed Susan M. Palombo to teach business education.

THE GENERAL STUDENT FEE for 1977-78 will be $22 for returning students and $26 for freshman and new students. This $2 increase, the first in 4 years is necessitated by increase in cost of towel service and textbooks. Cafeteria prices for 1977-78 will remain the same for the third year.

The board approved the lease-purchase of a Burroughs B-80 mini-computer with the capabilities of handling student records as well as present financial procedures.

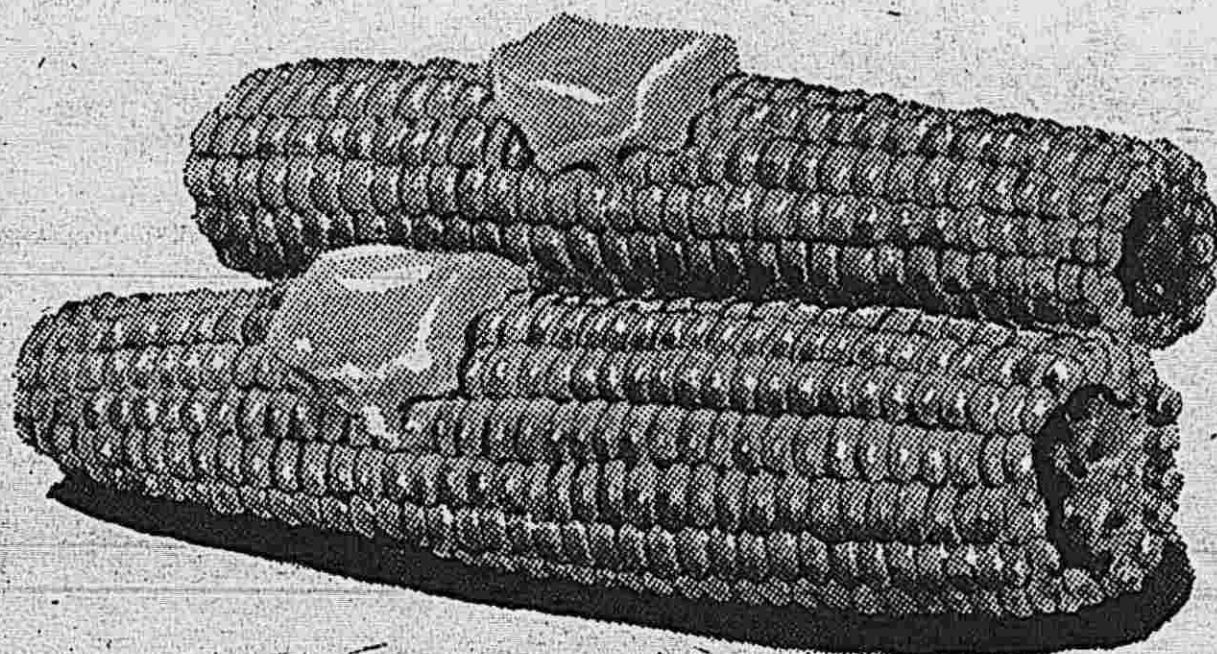

The board also approved a more stringent attendance policy and computer scheduling for all students to provide for better utilization of facilities and staff as enrollment continues to increase.

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: AUG. 3, 1927

Paving operations on Depot Street began last week. The work of pouring cement on the west portion began yesterday.

The Antioch Business Club, interested citizens of Lake Villa and county officials will cooperate to secure the paving of the road gap of 3,600 feet over the Soo Line tracks at Lake Villa. The proposed overhead crossing is opposed by many Lake Villa property owners, and the Soo officials have remained obstinate in the matter. Blinding dust and an extreme roughness for weeks has made traveling slow and dangerous.

A full tank of gas was the aim of every motorist in the region Sunday night when the grand rush began to fill up before the 2 cent gasoline tax went into effect. All existing supplies of the fuel in the hands of wholesale agencies in the community were exhausted long before the zero hour struck.

The Brush and Palette Club of Antioch was represented by several of its members at the Lake County Fair art exhibit in Grayslake. Those taking prizes for their work included Jackie Horton, a first award for a landscape in oils depicting rural Lake County agriculture; Janet Greenwood, second award in oils for flowers; Dr. James Kopriva, a first award for a water color of the Millburn General store; Pearl Powles, a second award for a portrait of an Arab, and Ellen McDowall, a second award for a water color of a snow scape.

Fred Hawkins Jr. of Antioch, nationally famous golf pro, has been selected as a member of the U.S. Ryder Cup team to play against Great Britain in Yorkshire, England, Oct. 4-5. Fred ranks among this country's top 10 professionals. Last year he won at Oklahoma City and was runnerup in the Tam O'Shanter All-American in Chicago. Fire gutted the Antioch IGA Foodliner at the corner of Routes 59 and 173 early Wednesday morning. Fire Chief Tod Mapletorpe said the fire apparently started near a refrigeration unit in the back room. The flames were largely confined to this room, but smoke and heat poured through the front section, blackening the walls and damaging stock. Mapletorpe tentatively estimated the loss at $100,000. The building is owned by Mrs. Helen Osmond.

Ninety-five years of Antioch history can be personified in William A. Story, Antioch's eldest Senior Citizen. His family's ancestors were among the earliest to settle this area shortly after the Grand Treaty of 1833 ceded the Indian lands of Northeastern Illinois to the U.S. Government, opening what is now Lake County to white man's settlement.

the village which drafted the ordinance.

- When the sign law was passed, businessmen with non-conforming signs were given a five-year period so as not to present any owner with undue hardship. (Many of the signs in Antioch's central business district are non-conforming and, theoretically, should come down within five years.)

IN OTHER MATTERS:

- Trustee Irv Walsh reported that administrators of Antioch High School and Emmons Grade School are coming to agreement with owners of the proposed Flora Acres subdivision in regard to provisions for school sites and open space. The Flora Acres land is just south of the village on Rte. 59.

- The board voted unanimously to rezone property at 23 North Ave. from residential to business. The village zoning board recommended this after a public hearing on a request by William Meyer of Sunrise Cycle company.

- The board turned another rezoning request over to its permits, planning and zoning committee, which meets at 7 p.m. on the fourth Monday of each month. That was a request by Donald E. Gustafson of 906 Hillside Ave., who asked for special zoning which would permit him to sell cars at that address. The zoning board voted 4-2 against the petition.

- The board hired William Kukla as a patrolman, bringing the police force up to full strength. Kukla, 25, has been with the North Chicago police department for three years. He is married and has a 3-year-old daughter.

- Also hired was Diane Mullin, as assistant parks and recreation coordinator. She will work under Sue Koppa and receive $4 an hour through a federal grant.

Trustee Vern (Barney) Barnstable reported that a stop sign will be erected at Hillside Ave. and Alima Terrace, where occasionally cars have been negotiating the curve by driving across lawns.

Tell a story . . .

With existing light, action, camera

Planning to camp in the Great Outdoors? Gear up with a movie camera.

Your story begins as you approach the campsite. Identify locale with close-ups of signs and landmarks.

To establish the setting, take a long-distance shot (25 feet or beyond) of the campsite. A medium-distance shot (8 to 25 feet) can be used to introduce your cast of campers.

The most natural way to make movies—from dawn to dusk—is by existing light. Outdoors or indoors, you can get good color movies without movie lights with a Kodak XL movie camera. The electric eye tells you when there is not enough light.

Remember to vary camera-to-subject distance, viewpoint, and length of scenes. Let your subject determine the length of each segment. A long scene can last anywhere from 10 to 15 seconds; a medium scene, 8 to 10 seconds; a short scene, about 5 seconds.

It will probably be dusk before you settle down to the warmth of your first day's campfire. For dim light (campfire, sunrise, sunset) use an existing-light camera with high-speed film, such as Kodak Ektachrome 160 movie film.

Keep backgrounds simple. Litter baskets, fences and poles distract.

Include plenty of action shots—biking, swimming and boating. But don't forget those passive moments collecting shells, picking berries, or bird-watching.

CHANNEL LAKE CHATTER

By LOUISE GUTOWSKI

A race between the Rescue Squad and the stork last Thursday night found the Rescue Squad the winner by a nose when 3 lb. 8 oz. Wayne Marshall Nichols was born at 11:59 p.m. at St. Therese hospital.

The proud parents are Charles and Elizabeth Nichols of Grapevine Ave., and the very proud papa said mother and son are doing fine.

I received a phone call from Mrs. Peterson Saturday morning, telling me they had been watching an eagle sitting on top of a telephone pole. Her neighbors on Willow and Spruce streets were out looking at it and taking pictures.

Of course, when this reporter got down there to see it, it had flown away. Diane Swanson took some pictures, so if they turn out we may be able to get a print for the paper.

IT IS VERY GOOD to see Ken Koss home after spending 4½ weeks in McHenry Hospital following an automobile accident in Fox Lake.

He is on crutches and getting around very well. Ken says he is delighted to be back home.

Happy birthday to Rich Rudolph who celebrated on Monday with a pool party at his home. Some of his third grade classmates had a great time at the party.

This reporter and husband Joe (along with friends Tracy and Carol Hill) had the opportunity to go to Alpine Valley in East Troy, Wis., to see "The Silver Fox," Charlie Rich, Sunday night. Starring with Charlie was a fabulous gal singer, La Costa.

Alpine Valley is a great resort and would be a nice place to spend a weekend. It features swimming, golf and tennis, as well as a large motel and the music theater.

The evening's entertainment was "thanks" to my neighbor, Joanne Franz, who on a sleepless Sunday night was listening to WMAQ and won the four tickets as the 11th caller. Thanks a million, Joanne; we sure enjoyed the show.

TAKE NOTE OR mark your calendar. Sunday, Aug. 7, is the Lions Club's annual Chicken Bar-B-Que with auction proceeds going to our wonderful Rescue Squad.

Saturday, Aug. 13, is the date of the St. Peter's salad bar luncheon with Phyllis McMillen in charge of the program.

Be sure to make your reservations now to see "My Fair Lady" at the PM&L Theater.

TAKE HEART all you exhausted mom's out there. School starts in four weeks. Do you think you'll make it? Well, that's all for this week ... so let me know the news!

Antioch's 'Fair Lady' is an evening of pure pleasure

By ERLENE PEARCE

"My Fair Lady," one of the stage's successes in America, is a success in Antioch too.

Lerner and Lowe's delightful musical, under the able direction of Tom Hausman, opened to packed house last Friday night and when it was over people left the theatre humming all those happy songs.

I was continually amazed how deftly that tiny PM&L stage was transformed, enlarged and redone to fit the needs of each scene and this play certainly challenged the talented people "behind the scenes" with 17 changes done so swiftly the audience was hardly aware of it.

Mary Chris LaKome is absolutely delightful as the spunky guttersnipe, Eliza Doolittle, who becomes a lady under the tutelage of Professor Henry Higgins, the celebrated phoneticist, who believes that a person's speech mannerisms decide his place in society.

Bill Misik as Henry Higgins and Ken Smouse as his cohort Colonel Hugh Pickering, are great. In fact, they didn't play the roles of Colonel Pickering and Henry Higgins, they were Higgins and the Colonel.

BILL MISIK impressed PM&L theatre-goers last weekend with his portrayal of Professor Henry Higgins in the famous musical, "My Fair Lady."

I CAN'T IMAGINE ANYONE portraying Eliza's

father more skillfully than Don Beveroth. He played the rogue, Alfred P. Doolittle, with such cunning charm he was almost loveable - even if he "couldn't afford morals."

All the great songs from this extravaganza were sung with such professionalism, the term "amateur" just doesn't apply. When Miss LaKome sings "Just You Wait Henry Higgins" and "Show Me" the audience can't help but feel her determination. We all rejoiced when she "finally got it" and "The Rain in Spain" filled the whole theatre.

We certainly have an abundance of local talent: the Cockney Quartet, the Ascot Chorus, Mr. Beveroth singing "With a Little Bit of Luck" and "Get Me to the Church on Time," plus Ken Smouse and Bill Misik singing "You Did It." Then, near the end, Bill sings "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face." These are just a few of the highlights.

THE PERIOD COSTUMES WERE superb, befitting the time and place, whether it be the tenement streets or the elegant Ascot Race. In fact, I loved the humorous way the entire Ascot scene was handled.

The hardest part about writing this review is editing it. I could fill two pages with accolades to the cast and crew but it's obvious this ambitious undertaking required a lot of hard work and cooperation from many people - a real team effort.

Do take the whole family to this gala production, but make sure the little ones get a nap; it lasts until almost midnight!

Be sure to make reservations (395-3055) because nobody should miss this tune-filled evening of pure pleasure.

All about town ...

By LINDA WALKER

Antioch's merchants are preparing for Maxwell Street Days, sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Bargains galore will invite shoppers from near and far. For a head start on the sidewalk sale be sure to check the special ads placed by various businessmen in today's Antioch News.

FOR ALL YOU breakfast lovers - Antioch's Restaurant is the place to be. George and Mario Hiropoulos are now featuring some super breakfast specials.

Whether you like pancakes, eggs or french toast served with ham, bacon or sausage, they have the right combination with the right price for you.

If you should miss the breakfast hours (5 a.m. until 11 a.m.), don't go away hungry; they have a complete menu with daily specials.

MIKE SEXTON, OWNER of Antioch Auto Parts, is certainly excited about his new store to be built at Rte. 173 and Hy. 83.

Construction will either start this fall or early spring. It will be nearly three times as big as his present business and will include a large display showroom.

Mike says they handle a full line of auto accessories now, but no one is aware of it because they are all stocked behind the parts counter. With the new display area, all the mirrors, antennas and other miscellaneous items will be in full view for the customer's convenience.

Sounds good, and I hope construction goes as planned.

THE OTHER DAY I was following an International Traveler. I came to the conclusion it had to be Stew Olson, our local International dealer, since the bumper sticker cautioned "Pass with care - Driver chews tobacco."

If you wear a petunia you are saying, "Your presence soothes me."

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

Some psychologists say that you'll live longer if you worry less. They've found that people far away from the pressures of modern civilization often live to be very senior citizens.

If you don't have to worry about the bad effects of a sunburn you'll have a better time at outdoor sports. A good tanning or sun-blocking lotion, however, doesn't solve all your problems. Sun and wind can be very drying, so a moisturizer, is a good thing to use when you get home. It helps prevent flaking and peeling—and keeps your tan much longer.

Astro-Analysis

By Sonia

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - A fine week for fun-filled activities; keep things on a light, gay basis. Avoid those who tend only to bore you.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Your communicative abilities can bring special rewards as you are able to be explicit and direct in dealing. Make necessary long distance contacts.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - You gain immensely by slowing down the pace and being more attentive of others' thoughts and ideas. There's an important lesson to be learned.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - You can easily let yourself become depressed over a trivial monetary situation which you have no control. Get actively involved in some worthwhile project.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - Your captivating personality can be most rewarding; show your bright, sunny nature to associates. Be considerate of one who is deserving. Drive defensively on weekend.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - Others may seek you out for much needed advice; be generous and show willingness to help. Your judgment is especially keen, intuition leads the way.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - Excellent planetary influence indicates popularity. A stepped up pace should be expected by the weekend. Don't be surprised if an exciting personality presents himself.

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - There is a tendency to be too sharp tongued with others in business matters. More can be accomplished by letting others take the lead, even if you don't wholeheartedly approve.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22-December 21] - Follow your intuition; you are gifted with new thoughts and ideas that can be rewarding to your career. Be nonverbal to those in superior position rather than disagreeing.

CAPRICORN [December 22-January 20] - Try to settle down to a normal velocity; line out a workable pattern that you can adhere to in occupational matters. Stay in good frame of mind and remain tranquil.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - Make a keen evaluation of yourself and the present situation you are now in. You may find that self-analysis can be the answer. Expect a pleasant weekend.

PISCES [February 20-March 20] - Don't take unnecessary chances while driving, better to postpone that trip. You get more accomplished by being mentally active rather than physically at present.

The face-to-face judging will continue throughout the day with sessions from 11 a.m. to 12 noon, 1:15 to 4 p.m. and 5:15 to 7 p.m.

Wednesday evening's grandstand attraction will entertain stock car fans with a demolition derby at 8 p.m.

Crisp Advice

Chicago (NFS) — Pretzels, potato chips, and other snack foods have a way of going limp once you've opened the bag or box. Moisture is the culprit, says home service advisor Pauline Church. She advises storing these foods in airtight containers such as Freezettes with snug-fitting lids.

Made of frost white translucent plastic and designed to stack for easy storage, they come in numerous shapes and sizes to accommodate all types of food.

Understanding Yourself

Time To Change Careers?
By Patrick J. Montana

People in mid- and late career often find themselves contemplating unemployment for what could be their most productive years, and many people just starting their careers are unaware of how to prevent this from happening to them.

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE to change careers—and never too early to start thinking about it.

Now, conferences are being held around the country to acquaint employers with these issues and to develop action strategies to meet them. These conferences include presentations by leading authorities from business, health, education and government on the problems of productivity and job satisfaction in mid-career, as well as career options and life satisfaction in late career.

For further information on these conferences as well as special services with respect to pre- and post-retirement as well as career life planning processes, write to Patrick Montana, President, the National Center for Career Life Planning, American Management Associations (AMA), 135 West 50th Street, New York, N.Y. 10020.

Honest is as honest does

One of the two women riding on a bus suddenly realized she hadn't paid her fare. "I'll go right up and pay it," she declared.

"Why bother?" her friend replied. "You got away with it, so what?"

"I've found that honesty always pays," the other said virtuously and went up to pay the driver.

"See, I told you honesty pays," she said when she returned. "I handed the driver 25 cents and he gave me change for 50 cents."

'Swim-a-Thon' starts at 12 noon

The annual Lions Club "Swim-a-Thon" is being held today (Wednesday) from 12 noon to 8 p.m. at the Antioch Aqua Center.

The Lions stage the fund-raising event along with the Antioch swim team's "Parents Club."

Chairman of this year's "Swim-a-Thon" is insurance executive Bill Stanley, a former high school and college swimming star.

The young members of Antioch's swim team are now touring the town, seeking sponsors who pay an agreed-upon amount of money for each length a youth swims.

PRIZES AWAIT THE SWIMMERS who turn in the most pledges. The boys' first prize is a Schwinn Varsity 10-speed bicycle. Second and third prizes are portable radios.

First prize for the girls also is a Schwinn Varsity 10-speed bike and portable radios will be the second and third prizes.

"Ask your family, friends, neighbors, family doctor, dentist, co-workers and merchants to sponsor you...and let them know how important it is. Remember, the greater the pledge per length, the greater will be your effort to support your club, and the greater your chance to win a prize," Mr. Stanley told members of the swim team.

"Bring along a towel and sweatshirt or windbreaker for the time that you may be out of the pool. Refreshments will be served to committee members and swimmers," Stanley said.

The event is being held for the benefit of the Antioch Aqua Center.

THE ANTIOCH SWIM TEAM will host its annual invitational meet Sunday morning, kicking off the Lions Club picnic at Williams Park. ## Personal to Triple-A Bullshooters from Foremost Crapshooters

My Dear Art:

In regards to your article in this newspaper last week, you ask us to sit down and shoot at the 16 yard line. My, my ... isn't this a switch? First, all you braggarts could do was belittle us with your great state championship shooting team. Now, I detect a tendency on your part to try to weasel out of YOUR rules, which YOU set up for this shoot.

Are you finally getting a little worried about our little Rag-Tag team? Are you looking for a way out?

We could probably beat you sitting down, but we've been told that there are some heavy bets made on us. So we will have to stand and do our best.

It's a good thing this shoot will be held September 10th at 3 p.m., in daylight. You guys sound like you're afraid of the dark.

8 young tennis champs are crowned

Eight champions were crowned Sunday afternoon in the State Bank of Antioch's first annual Youth Tennis Tournament.

The three-day competition attracted 115 young players between the ages of 8 and 17. The first tournament ran so smoothly and sparked such interest that they already are talking about next year's second annual event.

Pres Reckers, vice president of the State Bank who directed the tournament, and other officers of the bank presented a total of 32 trophies after Sunday's finals at "Doc" Jensen Park. Players finishing first, second, third and fourth in their age groups received attractive trophies.

The champions in the boys divisions were Don Korjenek, Mike Mohr, Roger Korjenek and Dennis Korjenek.

The three Korjeneks are brothers who live on Carriage Lane in Lindenhurst. Dennis, a member of Antioch High School's basketball team, also was No. 1 singles player on the school's tennis team this year. He is 17 and will be a senior at the high school this fall.

Roger was one of the best players on the high school's sophomore tennis team. He is 15 years old. Don won the boys 8 to 10 years of age title in Sunday's State Bank tournament. He will be entering the Antioch Upper Grade School this fall.

Mike Mohr won the boys 11 to 13 title Sunday in a close 9-7 match with Gordy Nasenbeny.

DENNIS KORJENEK and Tom Surrock played one of the final championship matches Sunday and it was an interesting duel with exciting, long rallies as both players showed outstanding talent. Korjenek's 6-3 and 6-2 victories weren't as one-sided as the scores hint. Surrock made it an interesting match.

Hundreds of spectators watched the three days of the tournament, packing specially-erected bleachers and surrounding the courts as their youngsters and friends competed in the first tournament of its kind in Antioch. The total attendance for the three days easily topped 1,000.

CHAMPIONS IN THE FOUR divisions for girls were Sally Flowers, Jennifer Behne, Genelle McKenna and Suzy Samson.

Waukegan Speedway enjoys 'Family Night'

"Family Night" at the Waukegan Speedway was a huge success ... a large crowd enjoyed a summer evening of fun.

Larry Cash was the big winner Sunday in the hobby stock division as he won the 12-lap feature and a heat race. The feature was interrupted four times by yellow caution flags during the first six laps and after that it was run non-stop. Dennis Topcik finished a close second to Cash with trophy dash winner Dan Buschatz third.

Topcik was the night's fastest qualifier.

"NO BRIANS, THE CLOWN" was on hand and his crazy and unpredictable antics provided fun and laughs "No Brains" drove a car provided by Lincoln-Mercury.

The forward-backward race was won by Jerry Stanley as he negotiated the five forward laps and one backward lap the best.

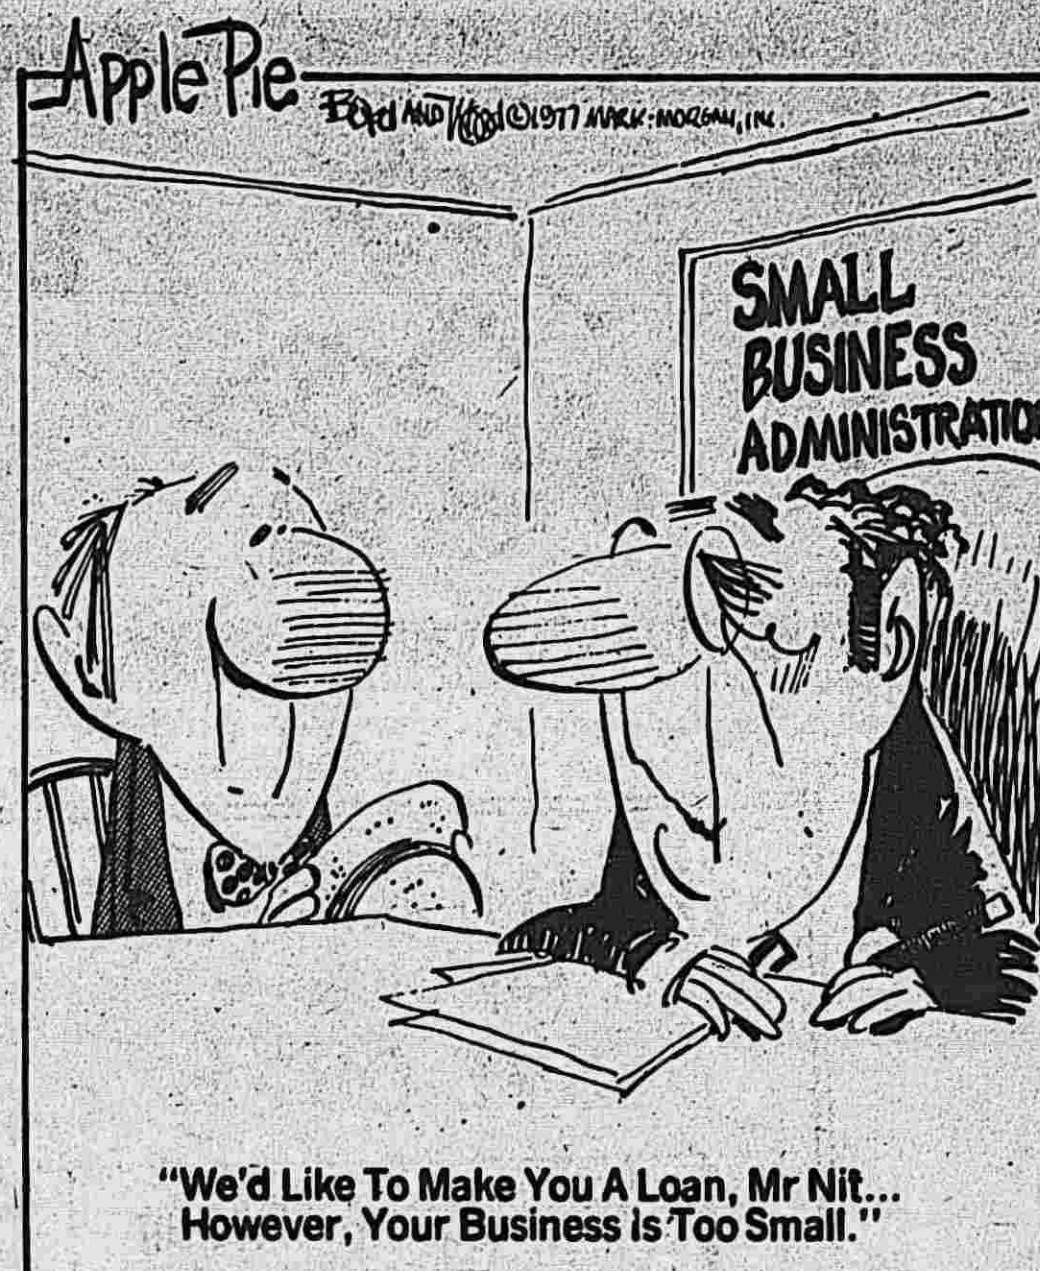

A six-lap tow truck race was held with Butch's Towing taking the top two spots.

THE RACING ACTION was fast and furious at Waukegan Speedway on Saturday night. Two records fell as the track was extremely fast.

Chuck Clark in his Camaro broke his week-old one-lap qualifying mark as he ran in 14.34 seconds.

By virtue of Clark's second place trophy dash finish, third in the fast heat and fourth in the feature, he now leads runnerup Don Collins by three points in the sportsman standings.

The night's second record was set when Jerry Straube drove his 1977 Camaro to victory in the record time of 1:31 in the six-lap trophy dash.

Indoors people find outdoors has something for everyone

You say you're an indoors person and you're perfectly willing to leave the Great Outdoors to the lions and tigers and bears.

You don't fish or hunt. You're not fond of camping under the trees. You don't swim well enough to feel confident in the water, and the idea of lying on a beach all day is ludicrous.

Okay, you're entitled to your own opinion — but just think for a minute of what you're missing by your "not for me" attitude.

The Great Outdoors has something for everyone. You don't have to be an active sportsman to enjoy its offerings.

A shady walk in the woods will reveal myriads of new worlds — wildflowers to be admired and photographed, gnarled old trees holding their leafy heads to the sky, little crawly things toiling in their own world, birds swelling their breasts in song.

A stroll down a beach can be full of pleasure. It's a perfect chance to get in a lot of people-watching. But if you keep your eyes down, you may also see sand crabs burrowing under before the next wave comes on shore, driftwood that has been washed up on shore and bleached white by the sun and wind, interesting shells, small stones carved into fascinating personalities by the water.

Even Sunday afternoon drivers can have their share of enjoyment in the Great Outdoors. Be a "shun-plker" and take the back roads that wind around the farms and fields, that follow the river, that curl around the mountains. Stop often and look around you, listen to the sounds and sniff the air.

Today's Brightener

When a husband returned home from work one evening he noticed a severe burn on his wife's ear.

"What in the world happened to you?" he inquired.

"Well," she began, "while I was ironing I was watching television and became absorbed in a soap opera. Suddenly our phone rang—and I answered the iron."

Many freeways have three lanes: the left lane, the right lane and the one you're trapped in when you see your exit.

The peak years of mental health must be between the ages of four and eighteen. At four, we have all the questions; at eighteen, we know all the answers.

3 more enter Antioch Open

Three more entries have been received for the second annual Antioch Open golf tournament.

The 36-hole event will be played on two Sundays, Sept. 11 and 18, at Spring Valley Country Club, just north of Antioch on Hy. 83.

The new entrants are Clifton A. Houghton, who will play in the championship class as he did last year. The championship class is for players who shoot in the 70s.

Art Blecke, principal of Antioch High School, has entered the Class A Flight for golfers who shoot in the 80s and Bill Setek has signed up for the Class B flight, for those who shoot 90 or over.

MORE THAN 50 golfers played in last year's first annual Antioch Open. Most of the contestants came off the course enthused about the competition and, with the deadline for entries still a month away, it is hoped that between 60 and 80 golfers will enter this year.

A blank appears on page 16 of today's Antioch News.

PERSPECTIVES

Can Miracles Happen?

By DONALD COLE
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

An Anti-supernaturalist is one who refuses to believe in the possibility of miracles. Assuming that miracles can't happen, they reject the Bible—which says they did happen. The assumption that they can't happen is based on another assumption—the assumption that nature operates uniformly, i.e. in accordance with certain laws. Logically, if nature does indeed operate according to fixed laws, there is no room for miracles.

But does nature operate in this way, or is the concept of the uniformity of nature an assumption? The answer is, it is an assumption; there is no conceivable experiment that can prove the validity of the concept. Consequently, anti-supernaturalists who base their objection to the miracles of the Bible on the principle of the uniformity of nature are forced into either of two positions: they accept as fact what they cannot prove, in this way becoming philosophers rather than scientists, or they view uniformity as an assumption necessary to scientific investigation. In this case, they refuse to discuss the validity of their position.

The truth—as already stated here—is that science cannot prove the truth of the uniformity of nature; it must remain an assumption. Christians don't object to this; what we protest is unwarranted conclusions based on an unprovable assumption. To say that miracles can't happen, when the only support for the statement is an unproved and unprovable assumption, is presumptuous and unscientific.

This does not mean that we Christians deny the uniformity of nature. The truth is, the uniformity of nature is a theological concept derived from the belief that God is orderly. Therefore His creation is orderly; it operates steadily, rhythmically, according to rule. If nature were chaotic, there would be no way to detect a miracle; in fact, there would be no way to define a miracle. In a universe in which anything can happen at any moment, what could be defined as a miracle?

No, Christians do not deny science's precious concept of the uniformity of nature. But we do protest abuse of the concept. Science is not entitled to use an unprovable concept—which is in reality based on the nature of God—to rule out the possibility of supernatural events. This kind of science is what Paul referred to as "science, falsely called." It is not knowledge at all; it is the unbelief of those who refuse to acknowledge that God is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. (Hebrews 11:6)

Rejection of the scriptures on the basis of an unprovable assumption is evidence of spiritual darkness. Jesus said, "If...the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!" (Matt. 6:23) But light is shining, and those now groping in darkness can find it—if they but look. As Jesus said, "I am the light of the world; he who follows Me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life." (John 8:12)
